

Half-Day Photography Contract

General Conditions for Photographing Birds at Ripley Waterfowl Conservancy:

- Photographers must meet with a member of the RWC aviculture staff prior to entering aviaries.
- Feeding, touching, or harassment of any birds is strictly prohibited.
- Photography of adjoining estate property (including buildings and gardens) is strictly prohibited.
- The sale of packaged media under the Ripley name and logo is prohibited.
- Acknowledgment of Ripley Waterfowl Conservancy in the credits of the publication, with prior approval, is required.
- Copies of digital files containing photographs and videos taken at Ripley must be provided for use in Ripley publications (with proper credit to photographer).

Cancellations:

- Photographers must notify RWC if they will not be able to attend their selected day.
- Refunds may be requested in cases of inclement weather which results in school closures.
- Make ups may be rescheduled if approved by RWC's staff if the appointment is cancelled due to weather or other circumstances, in the case that a refund has not been given.
- Must give cancellation notice 24 hours in advance.

Refusal to abide by the general conditions stated in this contract will result in the forfeiture of all images captured at RWC and future opportunities to photograph at the Conservancy.

Session Description:

Professional and amateur photographers welcome. Participants may enter selected enclosures only. Photographers may be onsite during the hours of their scheduled appointment only.

Session Fees (based on one photographer):

- Photography Half-Day Pass for one selected half day for non-members: $100
- Photography Half-Day Pass for one selected half day for a member: $75

The Conservancy does not guarantee the results of the photography session. Working with live birds and unpredictable weather conditions poses a risk for less than ideal photos.

I agree to the conditions outlined above and hereby acknowledge that Ripley Waterfowl Conservancy and staff shall not be held liable for any injuries I may sustain nor any damage to property or equipment I may incur during my time at RWC.
